

Press information

2014

Core Statement

Dr. Kerstin Kellermann, registered merchant, is specialised in the production of custom golf bags. The owner, who speaks five languages, coordinates the export to over 35 countries through an online shop. The company, founded in 2005, has established itself in a niche of the golf market and also gives the customers the opportunity to create their own ideas for their golf bags.